Teaching the Writing Trait of Word Choice

People say a picture is worth a thousand words. When you write, you use words to create pictures in the reader's mind. The words you choose will make a big difference in the kind of picture a reader gets.

This P.A.T. workshop will teach you strategies to help your child incorporate the trait of word choice into their writing. We will work on using lively verbs and interesting adjectives. It's time to get rid of those overused, boring words. We will learn to utilize a thesaurus to find some great synonyms. It's time to do more than just tell the reader your story, SHOW them with your words!!
